

3M™ Mobile Staff Workstation

Mobile circulation for better patron service

As a component of the 3M™ RFID System, your staff can utilize the mobile staff workstation to provide service to your customers wherever they need it in your library. The mobile staff workstation uses your library's wireless network to communicate with your ILS system's SIP server. This wireless communication allows your staff to provide a variety of tasks without needing to be tethered to a desk or PC. This handheld also features 3M's patented Store and Forward feature so you can circulate in areas that don't have access and forward later to your ILS for check-in.

Checkout

Expedite checkout for a customer with only a few items while waiting in a long line after story time, and provide the customer with a receipt (with optional printer) or email a copy to them as they head out the door.

Force a check out of an item that is blocked during a self-service transaction. (Check ILS provider to ensure compatibility).
